

St. Annes Series of Homes

European Collection

St. Annes is a town on the Fylde Coast of Lancashire in northwestern England, its landscapes resplendent with moorland, woodland and farmland. It wouldn't be difficult to imagine any of the elevations of this series in such a dramatically beautiful setting. The arched entrance of two of the plans is twice repeated on a third. Ideal for entertaining, the interior has a dramatic entrance, and the configuration of great room, kitchen and breakfast room lends an easy flow for gatherings that can conveniently spill onto the large loggia.

The pool is optional, but certainly adds to the aura.
